Subject: To whom it may concerns

Dear Sir,

Agrolab Group is pleased to present a new subsidiary of its laboratory network, Xpert International S.A. located in General Deheza, Córdoba, Argentina. The setting up of this lab aims at being present from the beginning the production chain to the final destination.

Agrolab Group finds a strategic partner at the heart of peanut production in Argentina, where we are able to control your goods from beginning to the end of the chain.

This laboratory works under the highest international quality standards and the same analytical criteria as the rest of our laboratories in Europe, guaranteeing the quality of the services offered.

The analytical methodologies offered are implemented through a training program in our Rotterdam subsidiary "Dr A Verwey BV" (member of the Agrolab group) and then technical experts regularly audit on-site both the implementation of these methodologies and the overall performance.
